This is the song Wimoweh by The Tokens, I have no ownerships of it, all credit goes to the Original Poster, this is a song made in South Africa 1939 in Zulu by Solomon Linda titled Mbube, which means Lion in Zulu, there was another version in NYC idk who made it but it was in 1953, then in 1961 it was remade by The Tokens, later released as a Hippo and Dog animation in 2006, which becomes a meme in 2019, I really love this song, reminds me of a lot, very nostalgic, and I really love the voice of the singer, really good voice, its a classic, one of my favorites, for those who havenr listened to it, you should, because its a Fucking masterpeice
